

Company Profile

Pictometry® is a unique patented information system that combines aerial imaging with a state-of-the-art software system that has the ability to provide Intelligent Images© unlike any other system available. It has a revolutionary new patented and proprietary method of capturing, processing and analyzing aerial imaging that allows you to See Everywhere, Measure Anything, Plan Everything. Our fast pace and growing environment will provide a great opportunity to join a dynamic team of professionals and create a new paradigm in the imaging and information market for aerial imaging.

Position: Regional Technical Manager, Southeast

Location: Charlotte, NC

Employee will be working from his/her own home and be responsible for entire area.

Education/

Experience:

Bachelor's degree and a minimum of five years work experience. Experience working with county and state government is a plus. GIS and IT experience is preferred.

Responsibilities include:

- Technical assistance with presentations to state and county clients, working in concert with the District Sales Manager and Regional VP
- Present and sell new products to existing customers.
- Respond to technical questions/issues raised by clients, coordinate response with home office staff.
- Assist the Customer Support Group with customer installations and training, as requested.
- Attend regional trade shows
- Working with existing clients to ensure maximum deployment and usage within the different departments.

Pictometry is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer.

Send resume to Careers@pictometry.com